

MEXICAN BANDITS PLUNGE RAILROAD TRAIN INTO FIERY FURNACE OF BURNING TUNNEL

Great Bore Through Continental Divide in Ruins, Mexican Northwestern Passenger Equipment Charred Wreck and Seven American Railroad Men Are Reported Prisoners in Clutches of Vengeful Outlaw Gang Headed by Maximo Castillo, in Retaliation For Capture and Execution of Twenty-two Members of Robber Band Last Tuesday.

FRANCISCO VILLA, ENRAGED AT NEWS INSTRUCTS SUBORDINATES TO SHOOT POSSIBLE PERPETRATORS ON SIGHT

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Juarez, Mexico, Feb. 6.—Seven American railroad men are believed to be prisoners; the great Cumbre railroad tunnel through the continental divide is in ruins and the Mexican Northwestern passenger train which left here Wednesday morning is a charred wreck at the mouth of the tunnel as the result of the depredation of members of the Maximo Castillo gang of bandits.

This information, amplifying reports received last night from Chihuahua, was received here today at the headquarters of the railroad. It corrects last night's statement that it was the Drake tunnel, a smaller bore south of Cumbre, that was destroyed. The Cumbre tunnel is the largest on the road, 2,741 feet long, and required eighteen months to construct. The names of the prisoners reported here are:

- M. J. Gilmartin, superintendent of the road.
- H. Schofield, superintendent of terminals at Juarez.
- Lee Williams, assistant manager of the railroad commissary.
- E. J. McCutcheon, engineer of the passenger train.
- J. E. Webster, conductor.
- H. F. Marders, express agent.

A seventh American is believed to have been on this train, and Americans also were employed on the freight train which was used to fire the tunnel. General Francisco Villa, commander of the rebel forces, now at Chihuahua, was enraged at the news and in a telegram which passed through here today instructed General Felipe Macias, operating in the Casas Grandes district, to shoot every man who could not satisfactorily account for his presence there.

The bandits are believed to be operating in two forces of about thirty men each, as Cumbre is a hard day's ride from El Valle, near Casas Grandes, where twenty-two of the robbers were captured and shot last Tuesday.

The other detachment, believed to be under Castillo himself, did the wrecking probably in revenge for the fate of his men at El Valle. He captured a train of stock cars Wednesday and ran it into the tunnel where it was set on fire. The tunnel was a blazing mass that evening when the passenger train from Juarez was captured and sent headlong into the roaring furnace which was belching flame and smoke from its mouth.

Castillo then burned two neighboring bridges, one of them constructed of steel, and ran two locomotives over the embankment into the deep canyon below.

HUERTA TO PUSH CAMPAIGN AGAINST REBELS

Madrid, Feb. 6.—Provisional President Huerta today telegraphed to the Spanish-American union here, replying to its request that he bring about an armistice in Mexico in order to arrange a compromise with the revolutionists by the statement that he is increasing the federal army with the object of pushing forward his campaign against the rebels.

General Huerta at the same time invited the newspapers of Madrid to send correspondents to Mexico to observe the situation.

The Spanish press commented freely on the Mexican situation today. Several of the leading newspapers of the capital accused the United States government of "fomenting anarchy." El Diario Universal, the organ of C. U. Romanones, a former premier, affirms that if the revolutionists in Mexico are supplied with arms from the United States, the government at Washington is bound to impose respect for the lives and property of foreigners in Mexico.

Wilson Roasted for Boosting Civil War

Sanctioning and Supporting Strife in Neighboring State Really Declaration of War Says London Daily.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) London, Feb. 6.—While "respect for his high character and fine ideals" moves the Globe to wish President Wilson well out of his troubles in connection with Mexico, Peru and Haiti whose "bloodstained administrations" challenge the president's policy of "non recognition," it considers his position impracticable. The newspaper continues:

"The expedient of sanctioning and supporting civil war in a neighboring state is a declaration of war in a form which can hardly be reconciled with the comity of nations. The danger of the situation from the point of view of the United States is that there is no retreat with honor from the uncompromising, if impracticable, position President Wilson has taken up."

GUSTAV PROMISES 30,000 SWEDES NATIONAL DEFENSE

Small Farmers and Land Owners March 700 and 800 Miles for Great Patriotic Demonstration.

WARMLY WELCOMED BY THEIR MONARCH

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Stockholm, Sweden, Feb. 6.—Rifling success, both spectacular and material attended the monster demonstration today in favor of the increase of Swedish armaments. The 30,000 participants were led by King Gustav who the problem of Swedish defense must be settled without loss of time.

The army of patriotic positioners which had waited on the outskirts of the Swedish capital since yesterday was greeted with enthusiasm by the entire population of Stockholm as it marched through the streets to the palace where King Gustav was waiting to receive it. The procession was a very picturesque one, composed of small owners and farmers from every part of the kingdom. All of them were dressed in heavy attire and wore emblematic representation of the districts from which they came. Some of them had traveled 700 or 800 miles in order to take part in the demonstration. The peasants were warmly welcomed by the king, who stood on the portico of the palace. The petition stated that they were ready to make all the necessary sacrifices to defend their country and to assure its independence and demanded that the subject be taken in hand forthwith.

The king replied that he was in hearty accord with the desire of the petitioners and shared their opinion that the problem was one which must be solved without loss of time. "On that point," he declared, "I am determined not to yield. The fleet of Sweden must also be strengthened."

Each of the men who marched in the procession was presented with a small portrait of his majesty and the demonstrators left the precincts of the palace they were again loudly cheered by the populace.

PROPAGANDA FOR PAN-SLAVICISM GROWING IN HUNGARY

Member of Russian Duma Credited With Startling Statement Regarding Menace of Northern Bear.

COUNT BOBRINSKY GETS IN VERY BAD

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Budapest, Feb. 6.—Russia will not demobilize her army until the Russian flag floats over the Carpathian mountains.

This was one of the startling statements attributed to Count Vladimir Bobrinsky, president of the Russian constitutional conservative party and leader of the Pan-Slavic movement in Russia when the trial was resumed today at Marmoros-Sziget of ninety-four Ruthenians charged with inciting rebellion against the Austro-Hungarian government.

Duliskovich, a detective, who was called to give evidence of Pan-Slavic activities in Hungary, quoted the sensational phrase from Count Bobrinsky. Duliskovich had been specially commissioned to investigate the alleged treasonable proceedings of the Ruthenians.

"I got into touch with Count Bobrinsky," he said, "and the Count entrusted me with the task of enlisting the services of educated Ruthenians who were to join the Russian orthodox church and after being trained were to return to Hungary to push the Pan-Slavic propaganda among their compatriots. Count Bobrinsky gave me $1,000 to induce a deputy of the lower house of the Hungarian parliament to interpellate the government on the petitions of the Ruthenians."

"While I was in Russia I was under the protection of Count Bobrinsky. I traveled free and was exempted from the passport regulations. Count Bobrinsky had plenty of funds at his disposal for the Pan-Slavic propaganda."

Count Bobrinsky, who is a member of the Russian duma, was immediately called to the witness stand, where he emphatically denied that he ever made the incriminating statement attributed to him. He admitted acquaintance with Duliskovich, but said his confidential agents had warned him against the detective. The court gave Count Bobrinsky permission to return to Russia when he had completed his evidence.

The trial has been in progress since December 23. The principal defendant is Father Alexis of Mount Athos. Great political interest has been aroused throughout Europe by the proceedings as it is alleged that the Ruthenians were prompted and financed by Russia and that it was carried out under the guise of propaganda to convert the peasantry to the orthodox church, but with the ultimate object of enticing them from their allegiance to Austria-Hungary.

PRIEST-MURDERER FACES DEATH GLADLY

Hans Schmidt Found Guilty of Killing Anna Aumuller Declines to Let Counsel Make Appeal.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New York, Feb. 6.—Hans Schmidt, who was found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Anna Aumuller, is seemingly content with the verdict and declines to permit his counsel to appeal. Next Wednesday, Schmidt will be sentenced to die in the electric chair.

The verdict against Schmidt was rendered last yesterday, a little more than two hours after the jury had retired. It seemed a great relief to the former priest who sat through the twelve days of the trial as if in a daze and was blankly staring at the court room wall when his bent figure suddenly straightened, a light came into his eyes and he smiled. Schmidt seemed to have prepared for the verdict. Since his arrest on September 14, he has refused to be shaved or have his hair cut.

Extra! Extra! Sylvia is Canned

Daughter of Militant Suffragette Leader Proves Too Militant for Even Her Strenuous Sisters in the Cause.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) London, Feb. 6.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of the militant suffragette leader, today announced her secession from the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant women's organization.

The rift among the militant suffragettes is said to be due to Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's ultra-revolutionary aspirations, which the leaders of the Women's Social and Political Union are unwilling to believe are damaging to their cause.

SMALL MEN FEAR NEW TRUST BILL WILL SQUEEZE THEM OUT

Ask Provision for Price Regulation in Measures to Be Drafted Along Lines Wilson Favors.

LITTLE DRUGGISTS HAVE BIG GRIEVANCE

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Washington, Feb. 6.—Small manufacturers and dealers who compete with great corporations want some provision for price regulation in the new trust bills to prevent their being squeezed when they cannot meet prices on large quantities.

Before the senate interstate commerce committee today a delegation spoke against the clause which provides that nothing in the bill should "prevent discrimination in price between purchasers of commodities on account of differences in grade, quality or quantity sold, or that make only due allowance for difference in the cost of transportation."

C. H. Nixon of the National Association of Retail Druggists, told the house commerce committee that cutting prices on patent medicines was the chief used by a combination of drug stores to drive small individual retailers out of business.

"We believe a monopoly is being started with the object of controlling the retail drug trade of the entire United States," said he.

The druggists proposed that the new interstate trade commission be empowered to enforce publication of fixed prices, wholesale and retail, on all articles covered by patent, copyright or trade mark.

Samuel Untermyer told the house judiciary committee that the interlocking directorates bill would be lacking unless it also prohibited interlocking stock ownership. The bill as it stands merely would substitute dummy directors for the real directors, he said.

He advocated barring directors and stockholders of railroad supply concerns from railroad directorates. He could see no hard and fast reason why the same directors could not serve in banks and railroads.

RESUME ARGUMENT AGAINST OWEN BILL

Washington, Feb. 6.—New York stock exchange officials and bankers appearing before the senate committee on banking and currency, today resumed their arguments against the Owen bill proposing government regulation of stock exchanges. J. B. Mahab, president of the exchange, invited the committee to New York to see its operations. Henry C. Noble, a member of the exchange, defended speculative transactions on the day's fluctuations in any security. Short selling, he said, created a positive market for stocks. Profiteers of the pending bill as to lending securities by brokers with whom they are pledged by customers would restrict "the free market for the small investors," he said.

THIRTEEN MEMBERS OF CHICKEN TRUST GO TO THE COOP

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New York, Feb. 6.—Thirteen members of the so-called "chicken trust," otherwise the New York Live Poultry Dealers' association, convicted of restraining trade in New York city, must go to jail. Their appeal was denied in a decision handed down today by the appellate division and their sentences of three months in prison and fines of $500 each were sustained.

The higher court found the defendants were in a pool which controlled 90 per cent of the poultry shipped to New York and destroyed competition. The case against them was prosecuted under the state anti-monopoly law.

MILLIONAIRE TERRAZAS BROKE

John D. Rockefeller of Mexico, $40,000,000 Fortune Tied Up by War, Now Seeking a Job.

MAGNATE WILL BE SMALL FARMER

"I Don't Mind Going to Work" Smiling Declaration as He Starts to Earn Bread and Butter.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) El Paso, Tex., Feb. 6.—His immense income tied up by three years of revolutions, Alberto Terrazas of the family whose name in Mexico is a synonym for great wealth, has been compelled to seek a means of livelihood.

This information, astounding in Mexico and along the Rio Grande border as similar news affecting a Rockefeller or a Vanderbilt would be in the United States, became known today with his departure for Pasadena, California. He was accompanied by his family, but not the usual retinue of servants. Near Pasadena, Terrazas expects to buy or lease a small farm where he can make a modest living. He is one of those who need no immediate prospect of peace in his native land and until tranquility is restored, the income of the vast Terrazas family fortune estimated at $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 in American gold will be tied up. Even in the worst of peace it may be lost, for the rebels have declared it confiscated.

"I do not mind going to work; it may be a good thing," he said to his friends before his departure, and then smiled at his own remarks, for his prodigality with money has been a story, chapters of which have been written on two continents.

Now, according to himself, he is to labor for bread and butter. He learned much of farming and the breeding of horses and cattle on his own ranches and his friends say he will be able to hold his own in wrestling an income from the soil.

The Terrazas fortune was founded by Don Luis Terrazas, now an octogenarian refugee in this city, in land grants from President Juarez and President Diaz. These holdings, immense as they were, have been augmented constantly until now. As train schedules are in Mexico it would take a passenger train, making the usual stops, three days to travel the boundaries of this domain. It stretches from Juarez 375 miles south to Jimenez and west to Casas Grandes. On it are whole towns, many hamlets, mines and fertile farms. All this was the property of the Senior Terrazas and his three sons—Juan, now in the city of Mexico; Luis, held a Chihuahua as a hostage by the rebels, and Alberto—until the rebels declared the whole estate confiscated.

DEMOCRATS WILL REPUDIATE PLANK

Administration Leaders Prepare to Go Back on Pledges and Support Wilson in Fight on Canal Toll Exemption.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Washington, Feb. 6.—Repeal of the toll exemption provision of the Panama canal law was before congress today as an administration measure backed by President Wilson. Although repeal of the section which would give free passage to American coastwise ships through the great waterway involves a practical repudiation of one of the planks of the Democratic platform adopted by the Baltimore convention which nominated President Wilson, administration leaders were sure of prompt action in the house and began lining up their forces in the senate where the key vote will come. Some Democrats there are avowedly in opposition to the president's wish and have announced their intention of fighting this proposal.

A message to congress probably delivered in person by the president is expected as soon as conference develop the administration course of action. Repeal of the free passage section will dispose of Great Britain's protest that it is in violation of the Hay-Panama treaty.

REVEREND FUNERAL MONDAY

Pasadena, N. J., Feb. 6.—The body of Representative Robert G. Bremner, who died at Baltimore of cancer after the radium treatment had failed, was brought to his home here today. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock next Monday afternoon.
